Fed Cup Australia vs Germany

Australia's Fed Cup semi-final against Germany will be held at Pat Rafter Arena in Brisbane next month, Tennis Australia said on Monday.

The tie will be staged over the Easter weekend of April 19-20 after Australia defeated Russia in Hobart last month to reach their first semi in the team competition since 1993.

Germany could field two top-20 players. Angelique Kerber (ranked 6th) and Wimbledon runner-up Sabine Liscki (ranked 16th). Andrea Petkovic (ranked 37th) is another singles option should either player be reluctant to play in the tie.

Sam Stosur (ranked 17th) and Casey Dellacqua (ranked 78th) are the highest ranked Australians, with Dellacqua and Ash Barty one of the world's most accomplished womens doubles teams.
